A big shout out to Michael Costilla and the rest of the cast of the Lighthouse Theatre production of "J.B." A really thought-provoking play based on the biblical book of Job done extremely well in the confines of the Crestview Baptist Church Events Center. Effective lighting and set design complement the strong performances by all involved, especially those of Michael Costilla and Trent Sutton, who is the director and appears in the role of "J.B." because of a last-minute cast change! Hurry -- there are only three more performances (Friday and Saturday at 7 p.m. and Sunday at 3 p.m.). Cost: "Pay what you can at the door." A tremendous first outing by this new theater company in our neighborhood.
